

Milena Teresa Motta (Cassano d'Adda, Milan, 1959)

A Board Director and a member of the Management Control Committee of Intesa Sanpaolo since 2016.

A graduate of Economics and Business from Università Cattolica of Milan, she is an Independent Auditor enrolled in the Register of Chartered Accountants.

Since 1982, she has provided corporate consultancy services on competitive strategy, marketing and innovation. In particular, she deals with instruments and methods for the systematic analysis of the market and the competitive environment in order to identify opportunities and threats, as well as with intelligence supporting competitive positioning and the innovation process.

She is teacher of Patent & Technology Intelligence and a member of the Faculty at ICI - Institute for Competitive Intelligence (Germany); teacher of Technology Intelligence and Strategic Roadmapping in collaboration with IfM - Center for Technology Management as well as Industrial Associate at IfM Engage, part of the Institute for Manufacturing, University of Cambridge (UK); teacher of Competitive & Technology Intelligence at the Management Engineering Department of LIUC University of Castellanza.

She has been a founder of SCIP ITALIA (Strategic and Competitive Intelligence Professionals), affiliated with the association SCIP, headquartered in the USA, and a founding member of SCIP's European Advisory Council in Europe.

She has served as Chair of the Board of Statutory Auditors of Trevi Finanziaria Industriale and as a Standing Statutory Auditor at Atlantia, Damiani and Brembo.

July 2022